CRIME PREVENTION STUDIES

---

Ronald V. Clarke, Series Editor

Crime Prevention Studies is an international book series dedicated to research on situational crime prevention and other initiatives to reduce opportunities for crime. Most volumes center on particular topics chosen by expert guest editors. The editors of each volume, in consultation with the series editor, commission the papers to be published and select peer reviewers.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

We are very grateful to the Department of Sociology, the Office of the Provost and the President and the Sponsored Programs Office of John Jay College of Criminal Justice for sponsoring the conference that resulted in this book. The organization of the conference and editorial work on the book was also partly supported by a grant from the National Institute on Drug Abuse (1K21DA00242-05), and partly by South Bank University, London. The chapters in this book were subject to an anonymous peer review process, and we would like to thank our reviewers for their helpful and constructive suggestions.

The viewpoints in this book do not necessarily represent the official positions of the U.S. Government, the National Institute on Drug Abuse, John Jay College of Criminal Justice or South Bank University.
